INTENSIVE COACHING SESSION POLICY

UPDATED SEPTEMBER 2025

This policy applies to all bookings made with Kingsbury Education for Our Intensive Coaching Sessions.

Who are 'we'?

In this policy, whenever you see the words 'We', 'Us' or 'Our', it refers to Kingsbury Education.

Your acceptance of this policy, and Our right to change and update it.

By booking and paying for Our Intensive Coaching Session, you agree to all our T&C's. These can be found on Our website, kingsburyeducation.com. We have the right to change and update our policies at any time and the most up-to-date versions can be found on Our website. Please read these before making any payments to Us.

Intensive Coaching Sessions

Pre-payment is needed to secure your child's place on an Intensive Coaching Session. Please see our Payments & Refunds Policy for further details, including the multi-bookings T&C's. Booking & payment confirms you agree with our Intensive Coaching Session Policy, Payment and Refund Policy and T&C's. If you do not agree any of our Policies then please do not book or pay any of Our services.

What you can expect from Our Intensive Coaching Sessions

Our Intensive Coaching Sessions look at specific problematic and tricky 11+ areas. Our Intensive Coaching Sessions that take place before Easter look at key skills needed for each of the papers in the tests. From Easter, the Intensive Coaching Sessions follow on from and picks up on areas of improvement highlighted from our Mock Tests in the same week and include areas which we know, from experience, children always struggle with, each year. Attendance at the preceding Mock Test is by no means essential to be part of the Intensive Coaching Session.

Each of our Intensive Coaching Sessions will usually cover a combination of Maths, English & Verbal Reasoning and will also include exam/tests tips, strategies and techniques.

If conditions out of Our control mean that Our 11+ Intensive Coaching session(s) cannot run, then either an alternative provision will be made or the session(s) will be rearranged. We are committed to continued, consistent and high quality tuition.
